(c) SNDL (OPNAVNOTE 5400 Series)

1. Purpose. To implement Secretary of the Navy approval to establish and disestablish subject shore activities and Chief of Naval Operations approval to re-designate and establish subject detachments, all under the command and support of the Chief of Naval Operations (CNO) per reference (a).

2. Background. The Commander, Fleet and Industrial Supply Centers (COMFISCS) serves as the Assistant Chief of Staff (ACOS) for Regional Commander Support. The ACOS is the Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP) enterprise single point of contact for Navy Regional Commanders and Commander, Navy Installations in coordinating NAVSUP support for Base Operating Support (BOS) functions. The establishment of FISC Sigonella will enhance and maintain the NAVSUP focus for consolidation of the Navy's supply chain management functions under NAVSUP. FISC Sigonella will deliver combat capability through logistics by teaming with regional partners and customers to provide supply chain management, contracting services, customer service, Hazardous Materials Management (HAZMAT), Household Goods (HHG) operations, Petroleum Oil and Lubricants (POL) management, consolidated mail services, support consultation, and related logistics services. FISC Sigonella will provide these logistics support services throughout the North Atlantic, Europe, and Mediterranean Theater; delivering direct logistical support to NAS Keflavik, NAVACT UK, JMF St Mawgan, NSA Gaeta, NS Rota, NSA Naples, NSA La

Maddalena, and NSA Souda Bay. Through the addition of FISC Sigonella to the COMFISCS supply center network, NAVSUP will continue to be optimally aligned to meet the supply challenges of the Navy, Marine Corps, joint and allied forces in delivering combat capability through logistics.

3. Organizational Changes. Establish the Fleet and Industrial Supply Center (FISC) Sigonella, Italy and its reporting chain of command and disestablish/realign applicable shore commands and detachments. The following applies:
